PEOPLE

Mr. Mann

Mr. Ford

Board of Education

The Board of Education is in charge of hiring new teachers, approving the budget, and planning new construction or improvements in schools of District 117. This year they successfully carried through the referendum to raise teachers' salaries and to build the vocational building. Each year two members are elected or re-elected to the Board.

First Row: Mr. Mann, Mrs. Preston, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Hinde, Mr. Swain. Second Row: Mr. Fay, Mr. Ford, Mr. Becker, Mr. DeShara, Mr. Chipman, Mr. Deem.

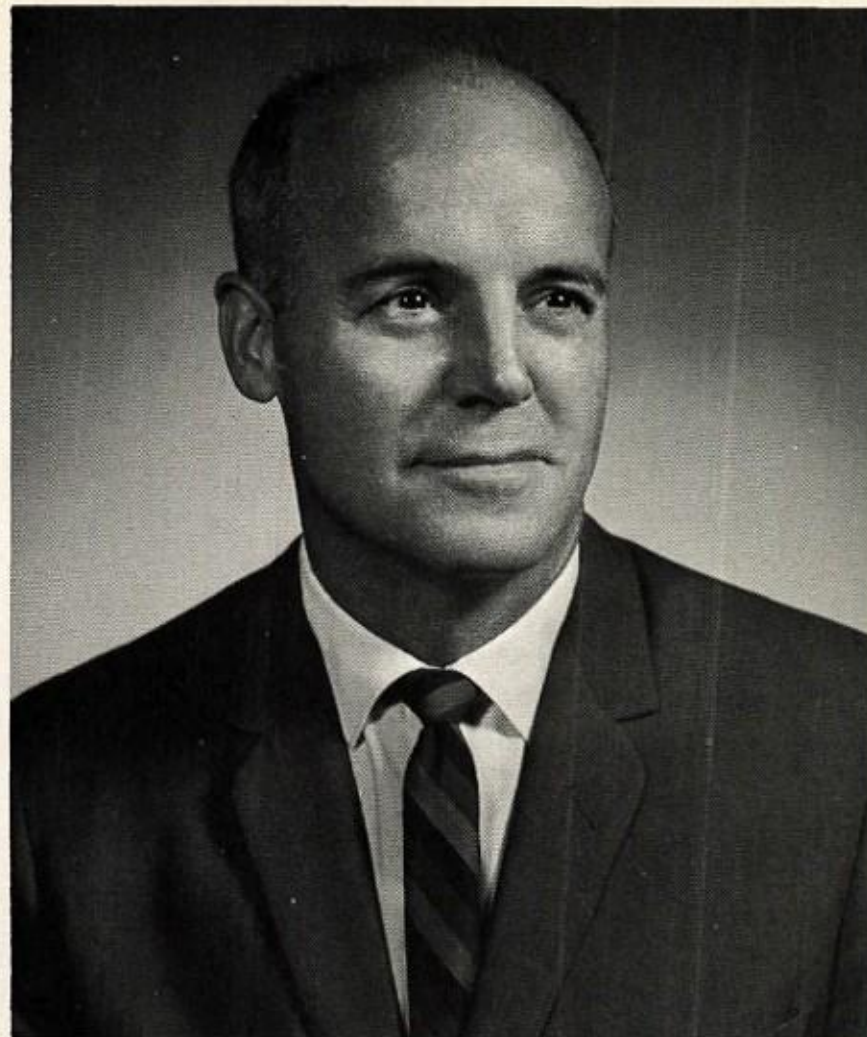

Administration

Mr. Jewell A. Mann, superintendent of School District 117, has his M.A. from the University of Illinois. He is in charge of supervising the schools and personnel and is well known and respected for the work he carries on.

Mr. Courtney Ford, the assistant superintendent, received his M.A. from Washington University. He deals with the budget and maintenance of the buildings. His capable performance is of great assistance to Mr. Mann.

Mr. Farrel Patterson, principal of J.H.S., holds an M.A. from the University of Illinois. He handles the running of the school and all the problems that arise. His friendliness and courtesy to each student at J.H.S. is appreciated by all.

Mr. Patterson

Board of Control

The main function of the Board of Control is to offer mature judgment in the control of the finances of the activities fund. Members of the Board consist of a J.H.S. alumnus, the superintendent of schools, the principal, a Finance Committee member of the Board of Education, two faculty and two student representatives.

First Row: Miss Self, Mr. Swain, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Ford, Mrs. Preston. Second Row: John Minor, Mr. Welles, Mr. Patterson, Tarry Damrau.

Miss Evans

Miss Elsie Evans, guidance counselor for girls, has her M.A. from Columbia University. Her readiness and ability to help students is appreciated by us all.

Mr. Al Rosenberger and Mr. Bernard Gregory are the guidance counselors for boys. Mr. Rosenberger received his M.S. from Illinois State University; Mr. Gregory holds an M.S. from Western Illinois University.

All three of our counselors are always prepared to furnish information about college, to offer personal guidance, or to consult with a student about a problem.

Secretaries

Because of our dedicated secretaries, the machinery of our high school and school district runs smoothly and efficiently. In the superintendent's office are Mrs. Fellows, secretary to the superintendent; Mrs. Preston, secretary to the Board of Education; Mrs. Gore, the payroll clerk; and Mrs. Gruny, who is in charge of purchasing and accounting. The principal's secretaries are Miss Harney and Miss Votsmier. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Fearneyhough serve as the counselor's secretaries while Mrs. Chumley assists in the library.

As freshmen, we entered JHS eager and happily anticipant of the varied and exciting future life of school. Early, individual talents, representative of the versatility of our class as a whole, began to shine in various fields—sports, activities, studies, and leadership. Leadership emerged as the chief characteristic of our freshman year. We elected our first leaders, the officers of the class of '65. When called upon to work together on our first class project, the Homecoming float, everyone co-operated with fresh ideas and freely-given time and labor. We worked hard . . . and won first place.

Our sophomore year was one of accordance with the chief purpose of a school—we studied, and we learned. We found what it meant to organize our time and to concentrate on the job at hand. We stayed up until late at night, writing themes and cramming vocabulary words into our heads. We were rewarded when a record number of our classmates were inducted into the National Honor Society as sophomores. So high was our academic achievement that, at the beginning of our senior year, ten students were qualified for the high honor of valedictorian of our class.

Our junior year caught us up in the swirl of many activities. Hours were spent practicing for the Crimson Frolics and the Christmas Vespers. Honors were won in music and speech contests and at science fairs. For the first time in the history of JHS, two representative juniors were selected to live abroad as AFS students. We sold Homecoming mums and Crimson pens to help pay for the 1964 Junior-Senior Prom. The success of the prom, the theme of which was "A Summer Place," was due to the many juniors who put their hearts and minds into its creation.

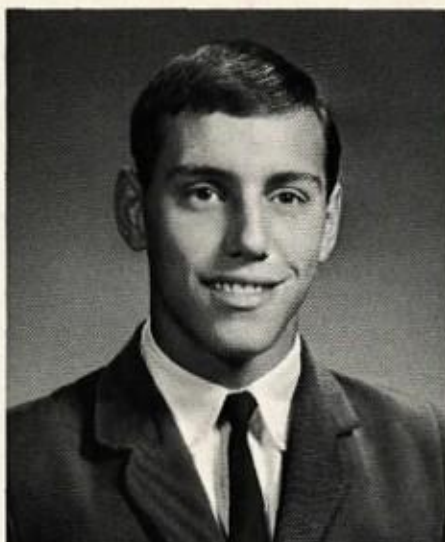

The 1964-65 varsity football squad introduced a year of athletic excellence by turning in an undefeated slate, winning all nine games played. The magnificent decorations of the senior girls, the bonfire, and the coronation of the queen highlighted Homecoming week. The year quickly flew by amid hectic completion of high school activities and frantic preparation for the next year—whether it would be filled with a career, home life, or college. No matter what paths we take, our lives will always be influenced by our four years at JHS.

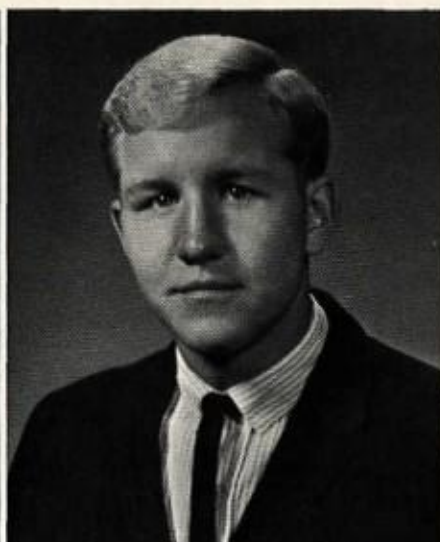

In Appreciation

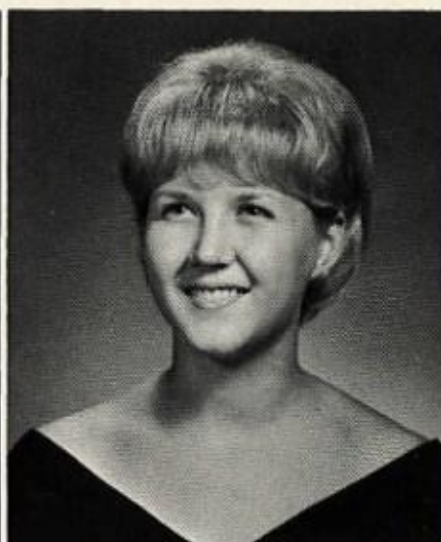

Carpentering, coaching, teaching, counseling—these diversified activities demonstrate the versatility of Mr. Bernard Gregory, the advisor of the class of 1965. Mr. Gregory worked for more than four months building himself a beautiful new home; similarly, in four years we have molded and polished our lives and personalities with the help of Mr. Gregory.

Crimson "J"

You just don't know what goes into publishing a yearbook until you are on the staff. To give you some idea of what it is like, here is a glimpse into a typical day of the "J" Staff. In one corner of the room you see Bob, Steve, and Bill furiously arguing about which picture is going into the "J". In another part of the room you see Dona and Lana jumping up and down as they finally finish all of the senior quotations just before the deadline. All the staff ever sees of Stan, Alice, and Jane is their backs because they are always leaning over a desk, feverishly writing copy or drawing layouts. In their own corner of the room you see Bill and John counting their money like King Midas. Bobette seems to enjoy working on the athletic's pictures. Wonder why? When you look at Sherri and Suzie, you see underclassmen pictures running out their ears. Mary and Linda keep the staff awake with the clack-clack of the typewriters.

The staff has worked very hard to give you a good yearbook, and we hope you will be proud of it.

Herald

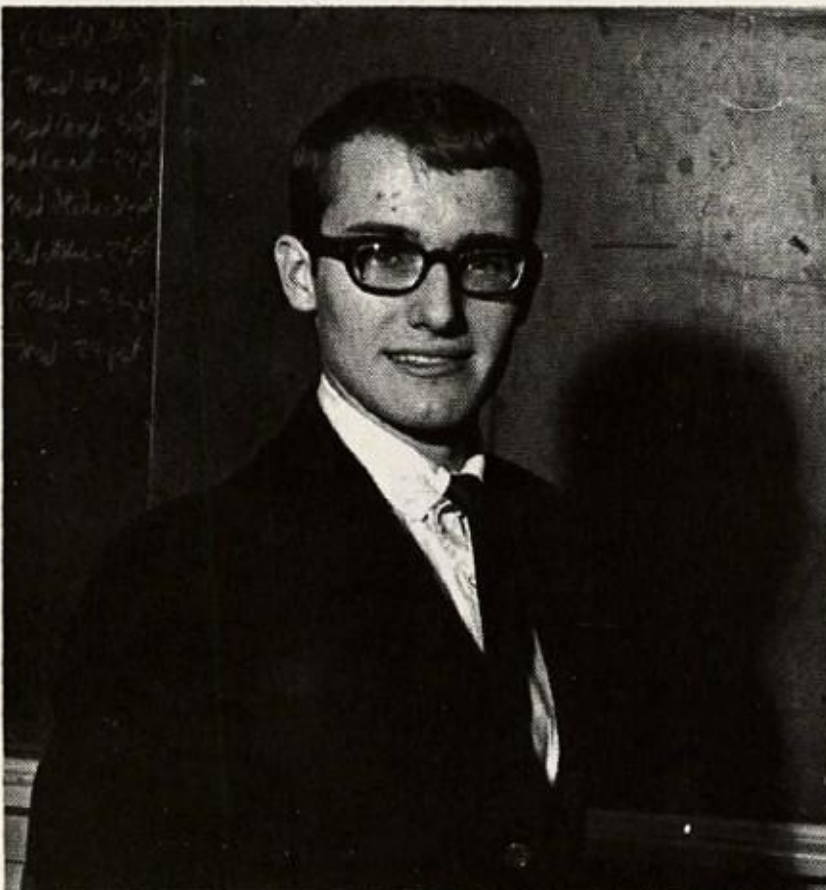

One of the most vital activities of J.H.S. is the bi-monthly publication of the Herald. Eagerness mounts as we students await each issue, for we know we will receive an excellent account of school news. A tremendous amount of work and time is given by our efficient Herald Staff. Under the leadership of John Etzkorn, editor-in-chief, and Mrs. Boudreau, the advisor, the staff produces one of the most highly-rated school newspapers in the state. In order to secure a position on the Herald Staff, each member must work to prepare himself in his sophomore and junior years. This includes being a member of the Freshman Journalism Class, the Sophomore Reporter's Club, and the Junior Journalism Staff.

Inkblot

You may not be a Longfellow or a Shakespeare, but if you enjoy seeing your name in print, you might submit your scribblings to the Inkblot. The best literature of the English, foreign language, and science departments are included in the Inkblot. Members of the Inkblot staff are selected from the advanced senior English classes. Materials published in the Inkblot are first selected by the teachers and then turned in to the Inkblot staff. After reading the numerous articles submitted to the staff, the individual editors make the final selection of the article to be published.

National Honor Society

To be a member of the National Honor Society is the highest possible honor bestowed upon a J.H.S. student. A National Honor Society member ranks high not only in scholarship but also in character, leadership, and service. This high school organization is comparable to Phi Beta Kappa in college.

Monthly meetings, tutoring services, and annual Christmas gift donations to State Hospital patients are included in National Honor Society's many activities.

Student Government

Under the excellent leadership of Mr. Bernard Gregory, the Jacksonville High School Student Government supervises countless school activities. In order to represent the entire student body, six members are elected from each individual class. Among its activities are the supervision of all Homecoming festivities, the organization of three annual school dances, and the sponsoring of our foreign exchange student. With Tarry Damrau serving as president, this year's student government has been a most outstanding one.

Alice Henderson and her Japanese family

Through the efforts of the recently organized A.F.S. Chapter, a dream finally became a reality for two J.H.S. students. Alice Henderson lived in Japan last summer for three months; Stuart Hemphill studied in Sweden during his senior year. A.F.S. students stay in homes, attend schools with their "sister" or "brother," and, in this way, learn of their adopted country through first-hand experiences. The two student rep-representatives of the Student Government, Bev Waggener and Steve Tavender, serve as liaisons between the A.F.S. Council, the Committee, and the student body. The members of the Committee include: Mrs. Weldon Smith, Mrs. Hildner, Mrs. Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. Hamm, Mrs. Kanatzar, Mr. Gregory, Mrs. Coultas, and Mrs. Auner serving as president.

Stuart Hemphill en route to Sweden

Uniting experience, endurance, and teamwork, the Varsity Football Squad earned a perfect season undefeated in both scoring and spirit. The combination of these qualities gained the Crimson the Capitol Conference Football Championship. During the season J.H.S. scored a total of 233 points; the opponents, only 60. The total rushing yardage amounted to 1,960 yards compared to passing yardage of 1,125. In the Hannibal game 630 yards were gained for a new J.H.S. offensive record.

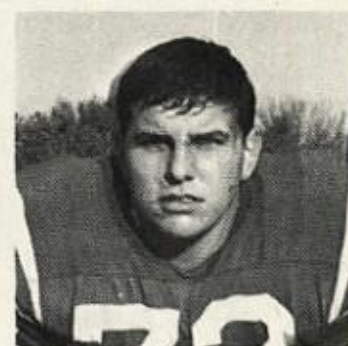

Setting the pace for the remainder of the season, the opening contest with Eisenhower proved to be one of the most challenging games and the decisive game toward the Capitol Conference Championship. MacArthur, although a very strong team, was not prepared for the Crimson's passing attack and, as a result, fell to defeat. Our Homecoming was played in traditional style: both scoring and spirit were high. The victory over Lanphier gave the team the undisputed title of Capitol Conference Champs; but the cost was injury to some key players. Due to the depth of the club, however, the following week saw the Crimson easily upset Monmouth. The members of the team played at their utmost capacity during the final game with Hannibal—the most highly offensive game of the season. The Pirates could not "rob" the Crimson of their undefeated season.

Varsity Basketball

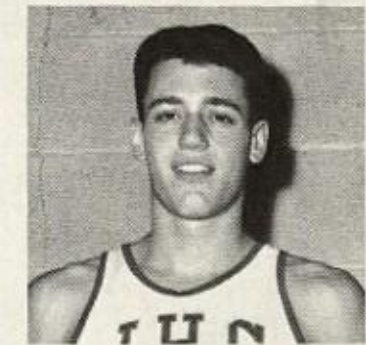

Retaining much skill from last year, the Varsity Basketball squad has employed its previous experiences to great advantage. An all-around team that has worked well together, the boys formed a network of strong defense and improved offense. The Crimson were able to enforce a "press" or maintain a man-to-man defense at any time. With nine veterans and three new players on the varsity, the Crimson were rated well at the beginning of the season. They were favored for the Capitol Conference champs and the Carbondale tournament and named one of the better teams in the mid-state area.

Wrestling

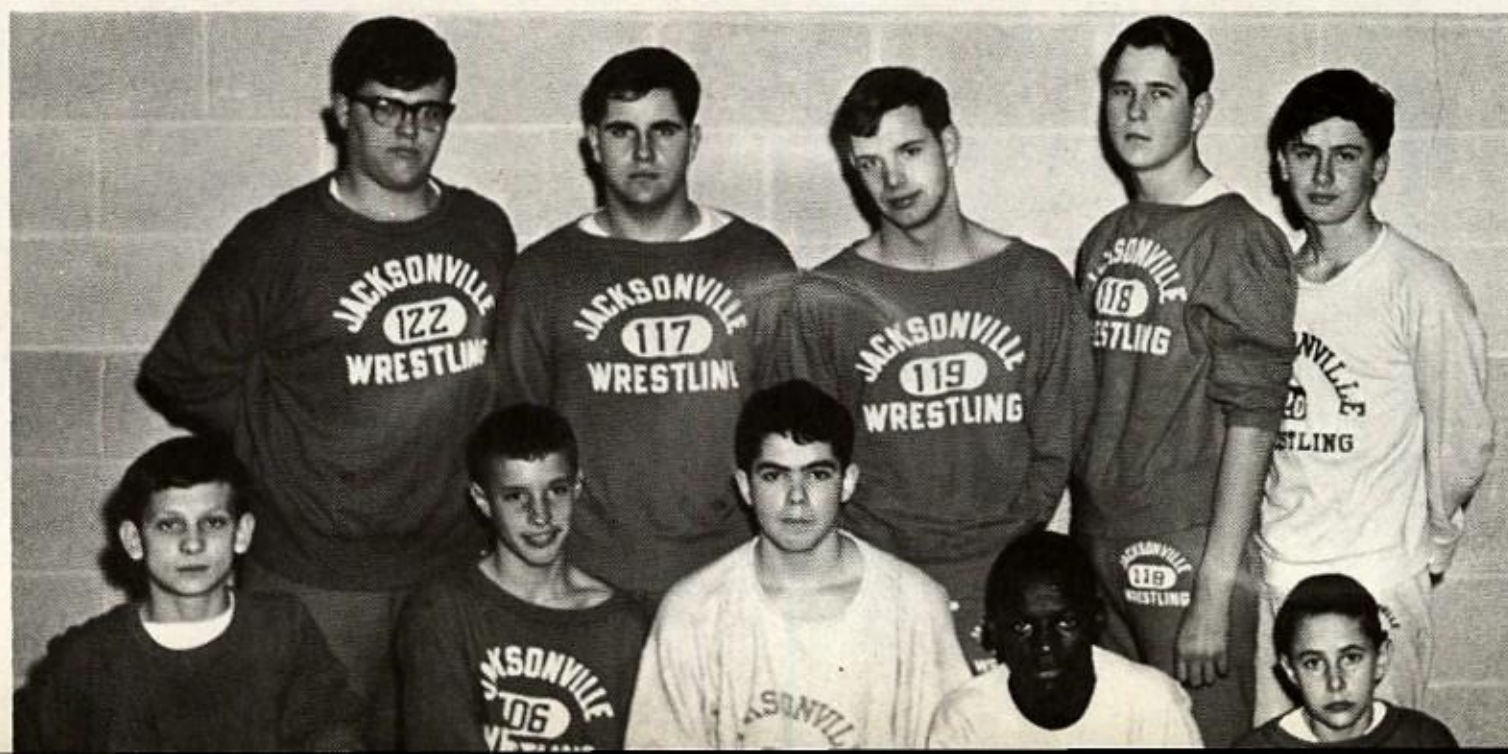

Head Coach
Tom Carmody

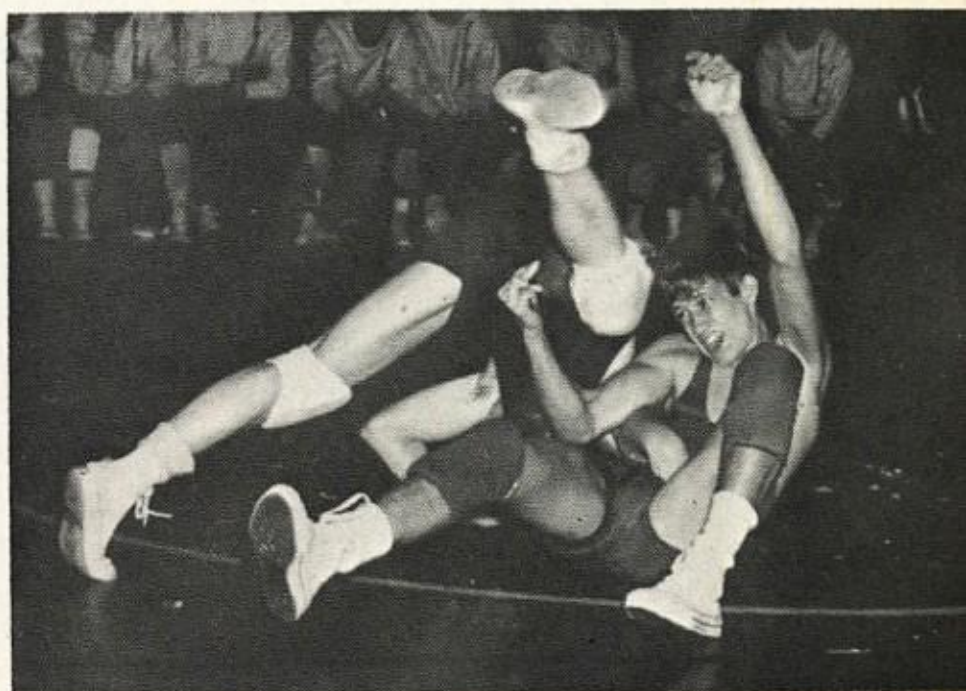

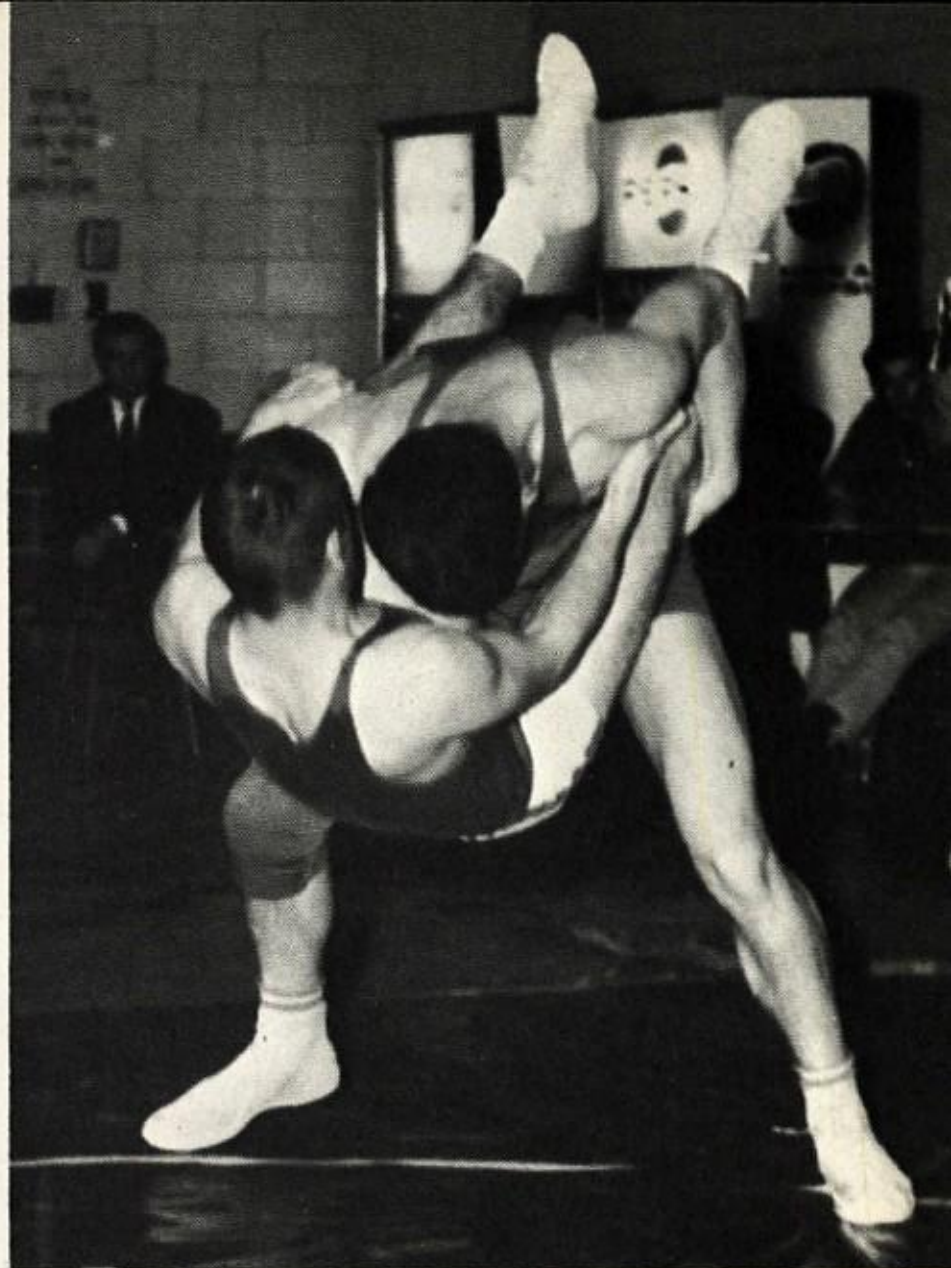

In the world of sports wrestling has long been considered the most rigorous of mental and physical exercises. Endurance, skill, and speed are all important in the evaluation of a good wrestler.

This year's wrestling squad, though spearheaded by nine returning lettermen, consisted of only three seniors, with much of the weight carried by juniors. Under the fine coaching of Mr. Tom Carmody, the Crimson grapplers turned in a highly successful season.

Cheerleaders

"One, two, three—Good Luck Fel-las!" This is a familiar cry led by the cheerleaders at the end of each pep assembly and at the beginning of every game. In the spirit of their cheers, the Varsity Cheerleaders demonstrated both their patriotism and their hard work—practice sessions every Wednesday and Thursday night. Because of their enthusiastic support of our teams throughout the year, they should receive the congratulations of the whole student body.

J'ettes

Every spring and fall several girls from the various classes are elected to be members of J'ettes. Because of the honor that accompanies this, the natural reaction of a newly-elected member is one of overwhelming joy. Participation in most of the sports activities include: making signs for games, taking part in the flag raising ceremonies, serving at the football banquet, and boosting school spirit. By wearing their sporty "red and white," our J'ettes add to the usual "before-game excitement." The main officers of this organization are Jan Culbertson, President; Lana Dunseth, Vice-President; Linda Doane, Secretary; Ellen Rammelkamp, Treasurer. The 32 members that make up the club should be congratulated on their fine show of school spirit.

STUDENT LIFE

“Tima” from India

The most sparkling addition to our school this year has been our American Field Service student, Pro-tima Nag (nicknamed “Tima” by her classmates), who is a native of Calcutta, India. Her enthusiastic interest in school activities has made her an important part of our school. In just one short year she has become an honorary member of both the Student Government and J’ettes, a Tri-Hi-Y member, and an AFS club participant. According to Tima, everything about J.H.S. has been “just wonderful!”

During her school year at J.H.S. Tima made her home with Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Kanatzar, their daughters, Connie and Phyllis, and their French poodle Brigitte. Tima summed up her feelings by saying, “I wouldn’t trade my American school and family for any other in the world.” We, the students of J.H.S., would not have traded our opportunity to know Tima for anything in the world.

Peace through understanding—sari and western dress interchanged.

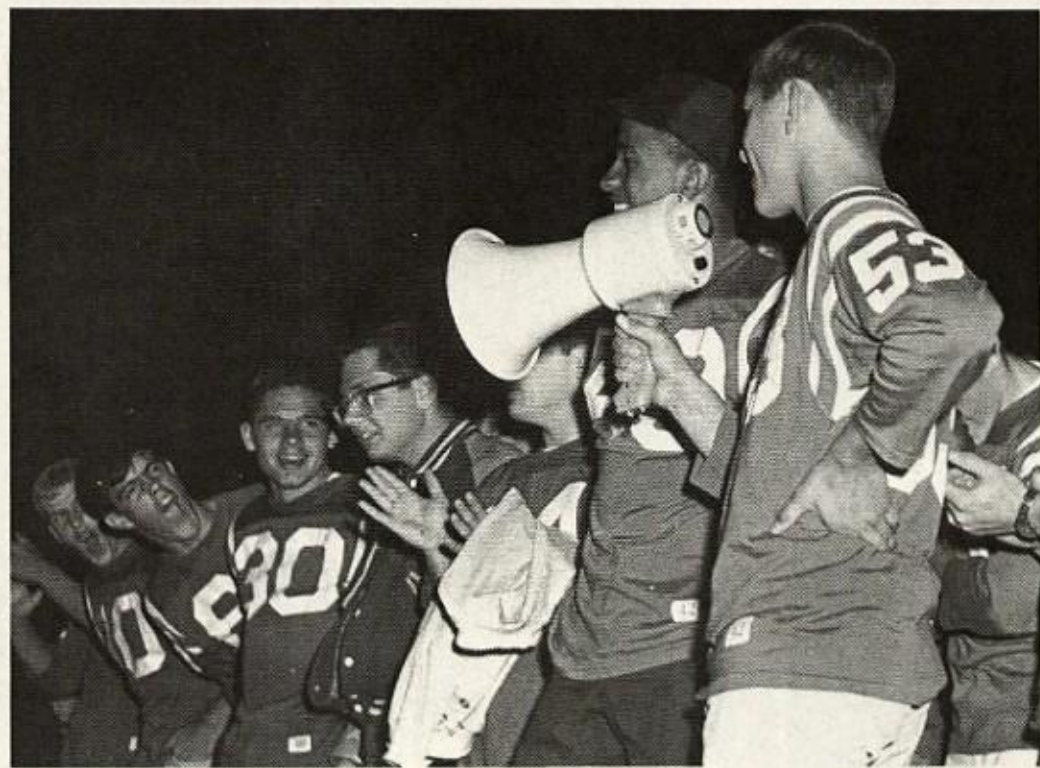

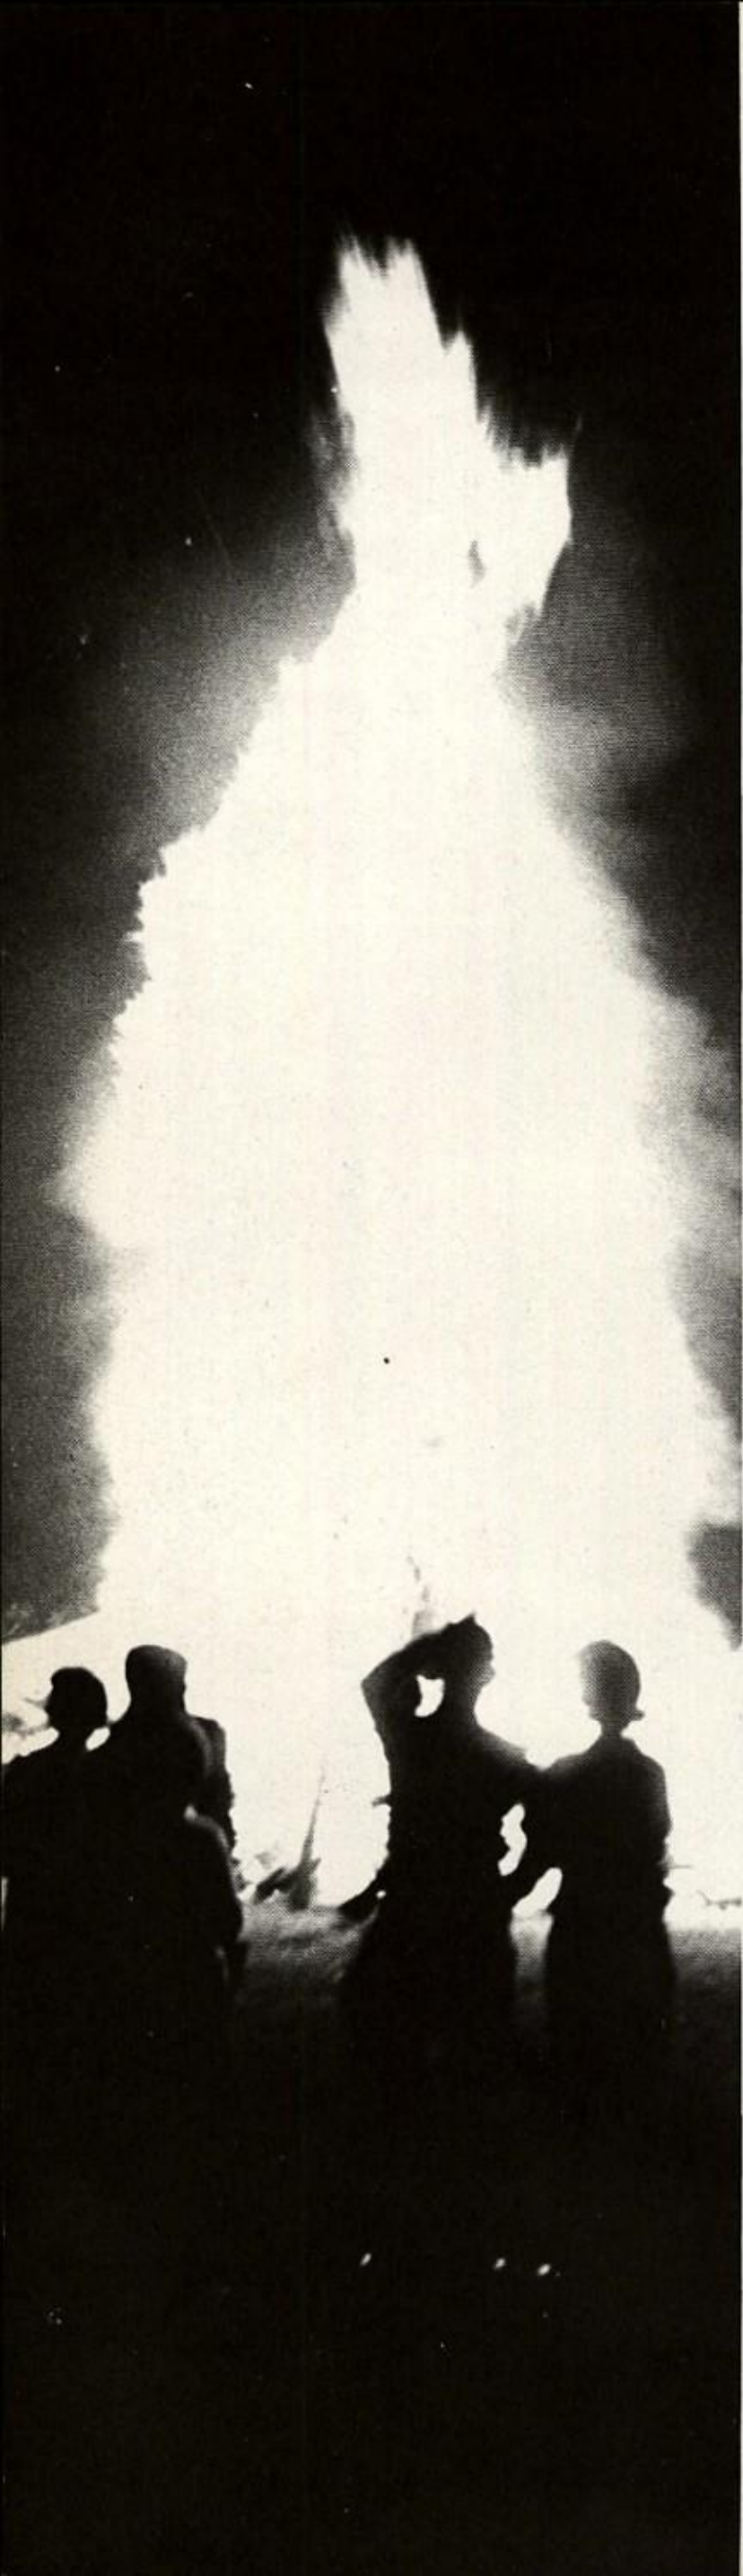

All School Dance

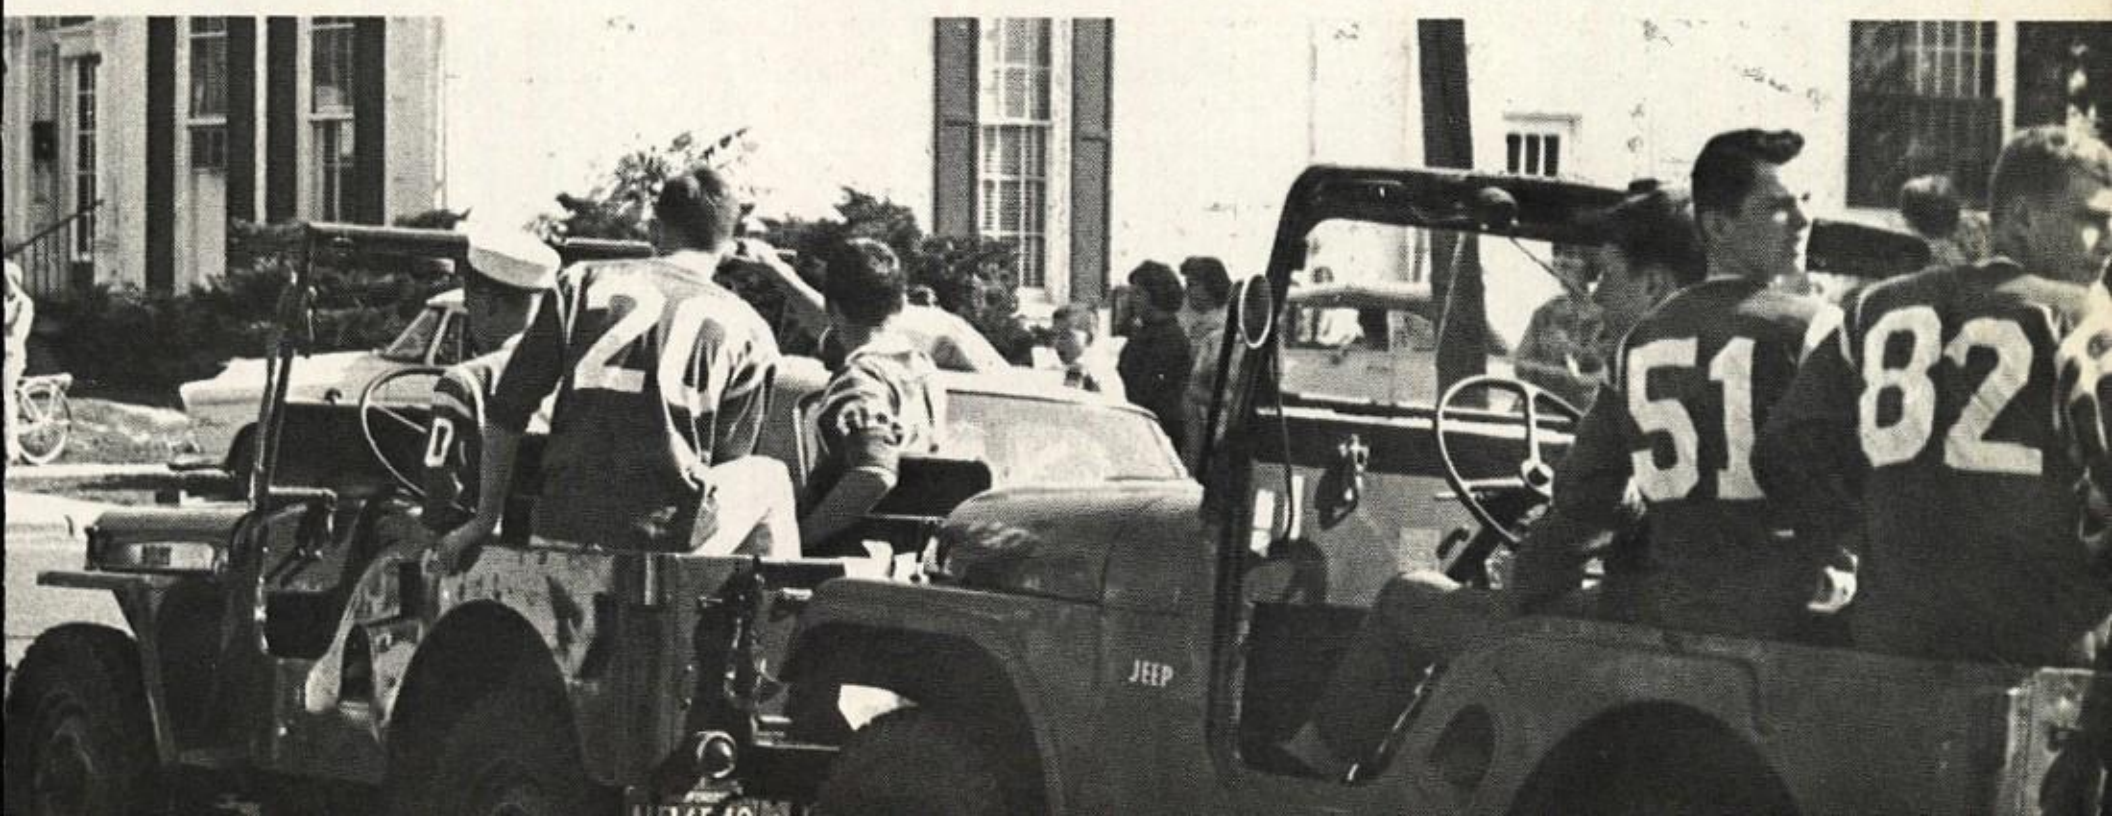

J.H.S. students, faculty, and friends danced to the fabulous music of the Bel Aires at the All School Dance. Renewing old friendships and welcoming our new freshmen, this dance was a delightful way to end the summer and begin a new school year. Held at the park pavilion, this annual event provided for a gay time for all who attended.

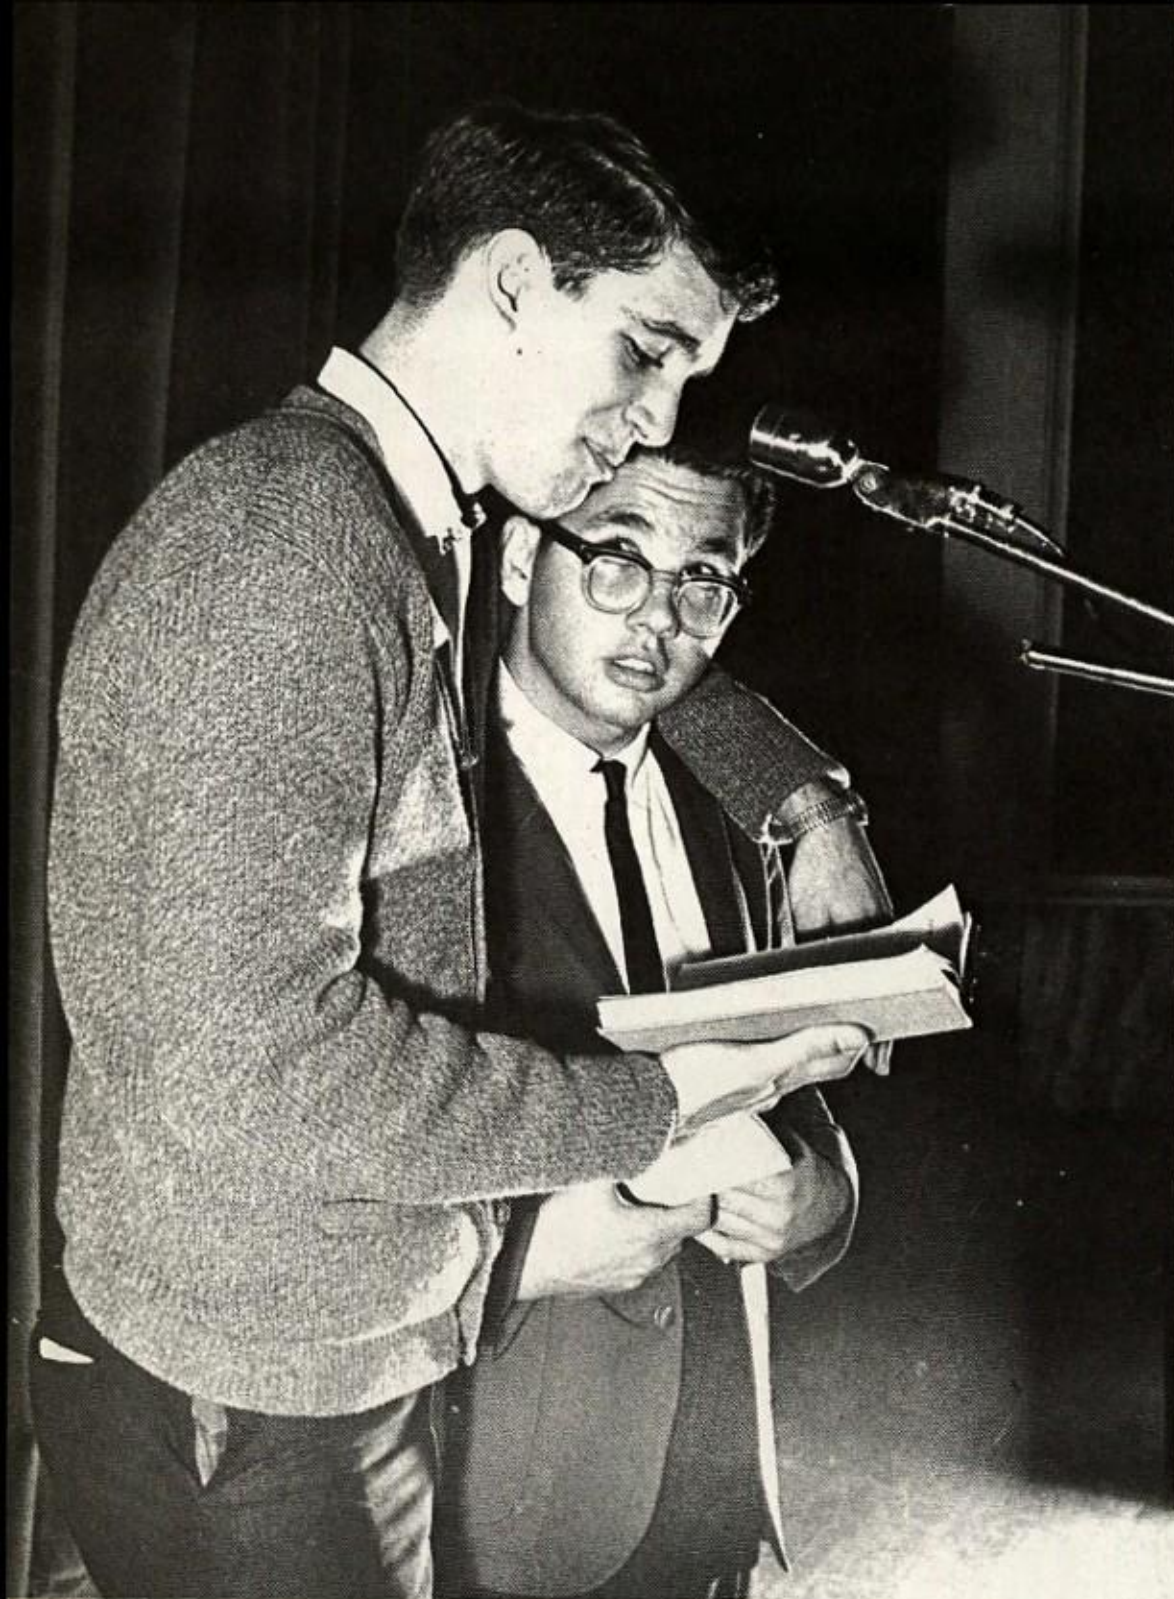

Homecoming

The old razz-a-ma-tazz of the Roaring 20's was brought back to life with our J.H.S. Homecoming. Activities commenced on Thursday morning when students clad in gala costumes arrived to see a beautifully decorated school. Our traditional bonfire was a festive occasion, and on Friday afternoon students gathered for a pep rally, at which time our Homecoming Queen, Cheryl McDaniel, began her reign. The sophomores were delighted by the well-deserved 1st place honor given them for their outstanding float in our annual parade. With a score of 25 to 6, our team was victorious in their game that night with Jerseyville. The glorious festivities were brought to an end at the dance that evening, at which time the Homecoming court of J'ettes, Cheerleaders, and football players were presented and our lovely Queen Cheryl was crowned.

Crimson Frolics

About the end of October a cry goes through the J.H.S. halls calling all students to try out for the annual Crimson Frolics. As try-outs draw near, all the acts begin working feverishly to get their number ready in time. When the winners of the try-outs are posted, another cry rings through the halls that goes something like, "Whoopee! I made it!"

To the background of music by the A Cappella Choir and Crimson Chorus, the 1964 Crimson Frolics proved to be a terrific success. Dancing was provided by the talented Rockettes. The Crimsonaires added a spark to the show with "Banua." A bit of the Roaring 20's was brought back to life with Suzie Dowland and Lynn Doyle's "Charley My Boy." Two of our "shyest" seniors are shown to the right taking part in the Senior Boys and Girls' act, "Give Me a Little Kiss." The humorous rendition of Sherri Choate and Bobette Kraushaar's "Anything You Can Do" added a lighter touch to the evenings enjoyment. The terrific folk-singing group "The Villagers" intrigued the audience with "Bamboo" and "Four Strong Winds." Together with the Dance Band, the wit of the M.C.'s Andy Kant and Steve Bone, carried the evening along smoothly.

Christmas Dance

The joyous spirit of Christmas filled our hearts as we whirled across the floor at our 1964 Christmas Dance. As couples danced to the music of the J.H.S. Dance Band, with soloist Miss Sherri Choate, excitement mounted in anticipation of the revealing of the Snow Court royalty. To the accompaniment of soft music, the secret of this year's royalty was brought to an end with the presentation of the Snow Court. The lovely Queen, Dona Gross, and her King, Steve Bone, reigned throughout the evening. Their royal attendants were Princess Janet Rowe and Prince John Minor; Cheryl McDaniel and Creston Whitaker; Kathy Wright and Tarry Damrau; and Suzie Dowland and Dennis Wegehoff.

Prom

At McClelland Hall on the evening of April 10, decades of time were swept away as the gentle atmosphere of a Gas Light Square descended upon the most formal occasion of the year—the 1965 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The theme, well-planned and carefully carried out, characterized the excellent taste with which the junior class presented this memorable gift to the graduating seniors. At the banquet, attention was turned toward both a nostalgic past and a promising future as Gaylan Rosenberger reviewed the past four years of the class of '65. John Minor spoke on the importance of a good education, and Mike Michalson emphasized the worth of setting high goals and working to achieve them. Also highlighting the evening were musical selections by Beverly Waggener and by a group of junior girls. Rog Patterson, the toastmaster, carried the program along smoothly.

Senior Honor Students

The class of 1965 has excelled in many fields, but we are most proud of our record in scholastic achievements. Never before has a straight "A" average been maintained by so many students throughout their four years: this year we boast a total of eight valedictorians. Each has been an asset to his class, and all have made contributions that will long be remembered by their classmates.

John Bomke excelled in math. In 1963 he outscored all J.H.S. contenders in the State Math Contest. As a business manager for the Crimson J, John secured finances for publishing this year's book. Next year he will attend the University of Illinois as a James Scholar and will major in math.

John Etzkorn, editor of the Herald, supervised the making of our fine bi-weekly paper. During Homecoming, he co-ordinated events and acted as Parade Marshal. He plans to attend the University of Illinois, studying liberal arts for two years, and then to work towards a major in chemical engineering.

Alice Henderson, the D.A.R. winner, served efficiently in an important position on the 1965 Crimson J staff—copy editor. She was elected chaplain of N.H.S. this year. Alice plans to attend Earlham College, majoring in political science and continuing her study of languages.

Andy Kant, a great asset to the sports of J.H.S., managed an undefeated football team and an impressive "Sweet Sixteen" basketball team. As one of the MC's of the Crimson Frolics, Andy demonstrated his wit. Andy is going to study pre-medicine at Illinois College. Cheryl McDaniel, a cheerleader for four years, has exemplified leadership ability and service. A member of Student Government for four years, she was vice-president this year. Cheryl plans to attend the University of Iowa to study in the field of medical technology.

Sharon Pinson, student head of the J.H.S. Science Council, demonstrated her ability in this field by producing fine science projects that gained statewide recognition. She was managing editor of this year's Herald. Sharon is going to study bio-chemistry at Lawrence University.

Ron Sorrells has been a member of N.H.S. for three years and served as business manager of the 1965 Inkblot. He especially enjoyed intramurals and excelled particularly in bowling. He plans to attend Illinois College and the University of Illinois, Chicago Campus, to prepare for a career in pharmacy.

Bill Young, business manager of the Crimson J, collected the ads and subscriptions. During his future years at the University of Illinois, Bill will have the honor of being a James Scholar. He will study towards a major in electrical engineering.

Steve Bone, this year's S.A.R. winner, excelled as center forward on our victorious basketball team. He has been very active in church work and served as president of U.C.Y.F. during his senior year. Steve plans to attend Wooster College and to major in pre-law.

The D.A.R. and the S.A.R. awards are given each year to students who are recognized by their classmates and teachers as possessing the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Sadie Hawkins Day

Dogpatch characters came suddenly to life as our annual Sadie Hawkins festivities commenced. Blacked-out teeth, freckled faces, and corn-cob pipes filled our corridors throughout the school day. The dance was held at the "Y" and was sponsored by Tri-Hi-Y of '65 and the Student Government. During intermission everyone took part in original Dogpatch games, laughing at the catastrophes of the potato-sack races and the three-legged race. Marryin' Sam and Company "hitched" countless couples throughout the evening. Judging by the great turnout at the dance, the guys must not have put up much resistance this year!

This year the varsity grapplers added a nine win—three loss slate to the long list of successful wrestling campaigns at J.H.S.

In the Capital Conference, the wrestlers finished second, beaten only by the always tough MacArthur Generals. For the fourth year in a row, the Crimson's won their own district meet, placing men in all but two weight divisions. Bill Weller and Wes Hilligoss won first; Bob Dennis, Larry Nortrup, and Roger Zulauf took seconds. Of these, Wes and Bob placed in the sectional at Wood River, third and fourth respectively.

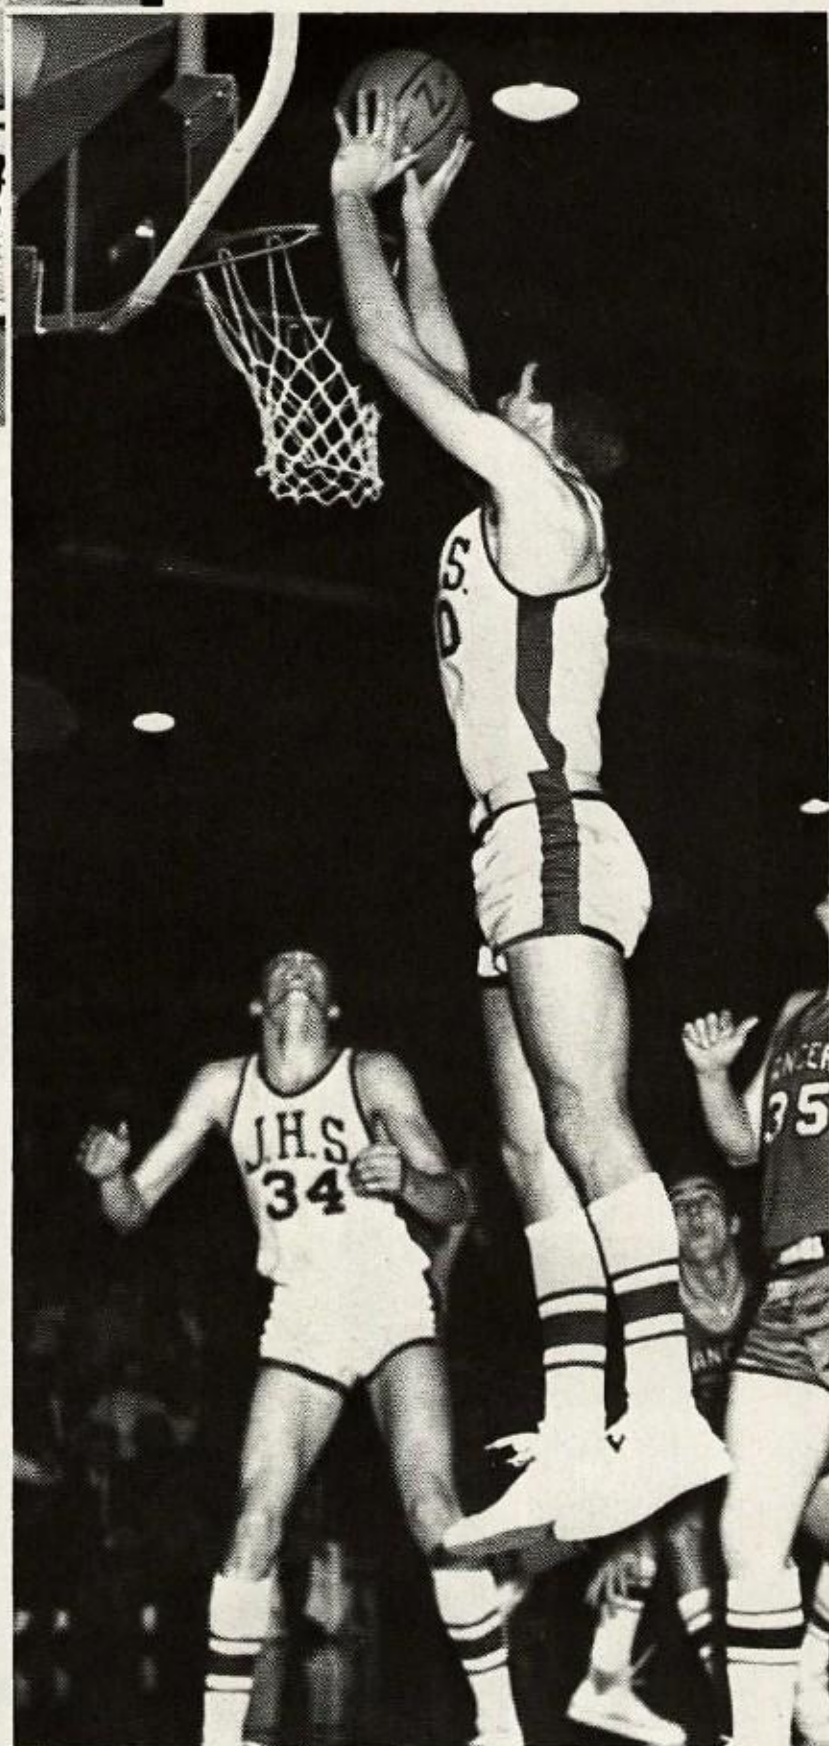

Basketball

Sweet Sixteen! For the first time since 1953, the Jacksonville Crimsons competed in the supersectional basketball tournament. To receive this honor the Crimsons had to defeat a difficult rostrum of teams in the regional and the sectional tournaments. An additional honor was the mention of two team members, Creston Whitaker and Steve Bone, in state wide recognition.

By defeating the Carbondale Terriers, the Crimsons won their first major holiday basketball tournament in the history of J.H.S. With this victory, they boosted themselves to a rating of sixth in the state. Their continuity of prowess on the hardwood court was strongly evident in their impressive record of twenty-five wins and five losses. The support given by the students and the entire community reflected the spirit of the team.

Baseball

Continuing the victorious season of football and basketball, the Crimson baseball team participated in the state baseball tournament. As a member of the "Elite Eight," they traveled to Peoria to play their first opponents, Decatur MacArthur. Although a loss was recorded for this game, the Crimsons exhibited their championship ability by holding their victors to a 5-4 defeat. On their road to the state meet, the Crimsons had to beat two excellent teams at Staunton, Illinois. These two teams were Riverton and Assumption of East St. Louis, both being defeated by a score of 1-0.

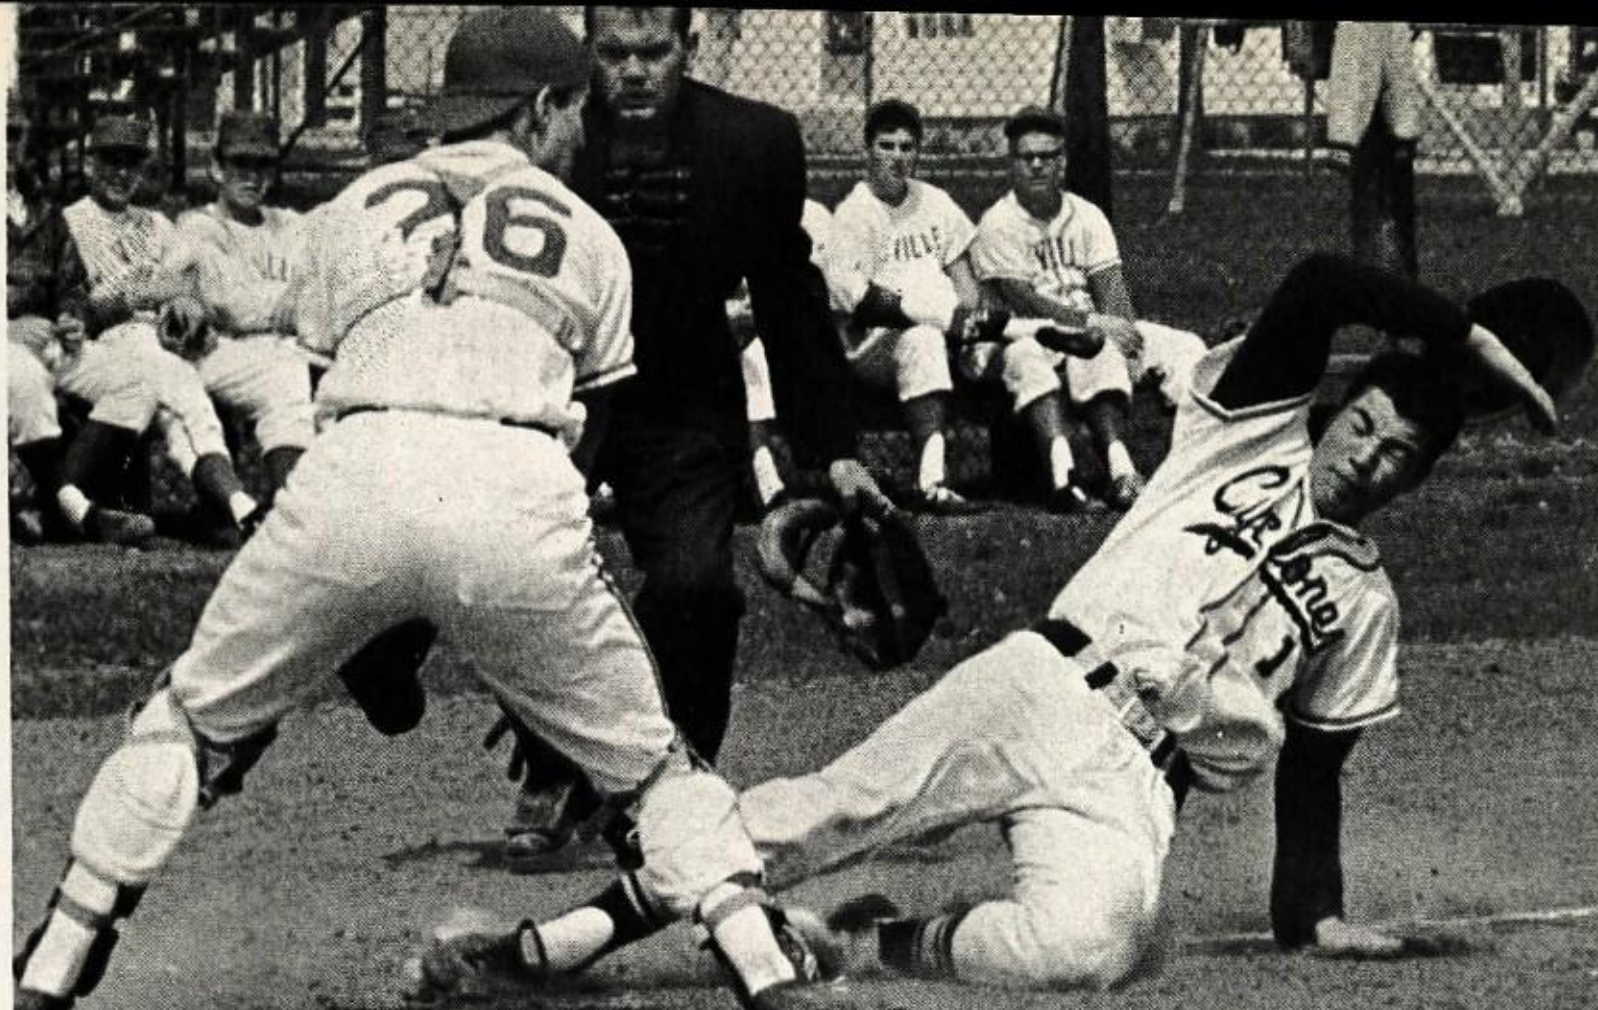

The regular season foretold of a team that would go far. The teamwork of the infield was a strong point throughout the season. Later in the season a great deal depended upon pitcher Rich Coble and catcher Larry Sample. The fine work of Tom Woods at first, Creston Whitaker at second, Jerry Suttles at short stop, and Dennis Wegehoft at third was also important. Regulars in the outfield were Larry Welch, who was the top batter of the year, and Ron Coleman.

Elite Eight

This year's team holds a record for being the first team from J.H.S. to participate in a state baseball tournament. With the coming years this record will probably be broken, but we will always remember the 1965 baseball team as the first.

During the season, the 1965 J.H.S. track and field team won 11 meets and lost 1. They defeated many strong teams such as Carlinville, Quincy, and Gillespie. As in every season, past records were broken. Larry Nortrup raised the pole vault record at J.H.S. to 11' 7 3/4". Jim Bruner, Abe Brown, Art McPike, and Ben Richardson set new times in both the freshman-sophomore 440 and 880 yard relay. They were undefeated and captured the Capitol Conference Championship. Jim Bruner also set a new record for a freshman competing in the varsity, compiling a total of 88 points.

This year's golf team, consisting of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, ended the year with a successful season by defending their title of the Capitol Conference Champs, underscoring the Griffin Generals 216-324. Jim Cisne and Steve Bochemeier won individual honors by tying for second with a three over par score of 75. Compiling a record of 7 wins, 5 losses, and 2 ties, the Crimson's showed strong potential for next year.

Tennis was the only sport at J.H.S. this year which suffered an unsuccessful season, closing out with a 0-9 record. However, under the coaching of Mr. Manuel Velasco, the underclassmen have shown much improvement. Beating the Q.C.B. junior varsity 4-0, they show a promising future in tennis at J.H.S.

MacMURRAY COLLEGE

A College for Women Since 1846

A College for Men Since 1955

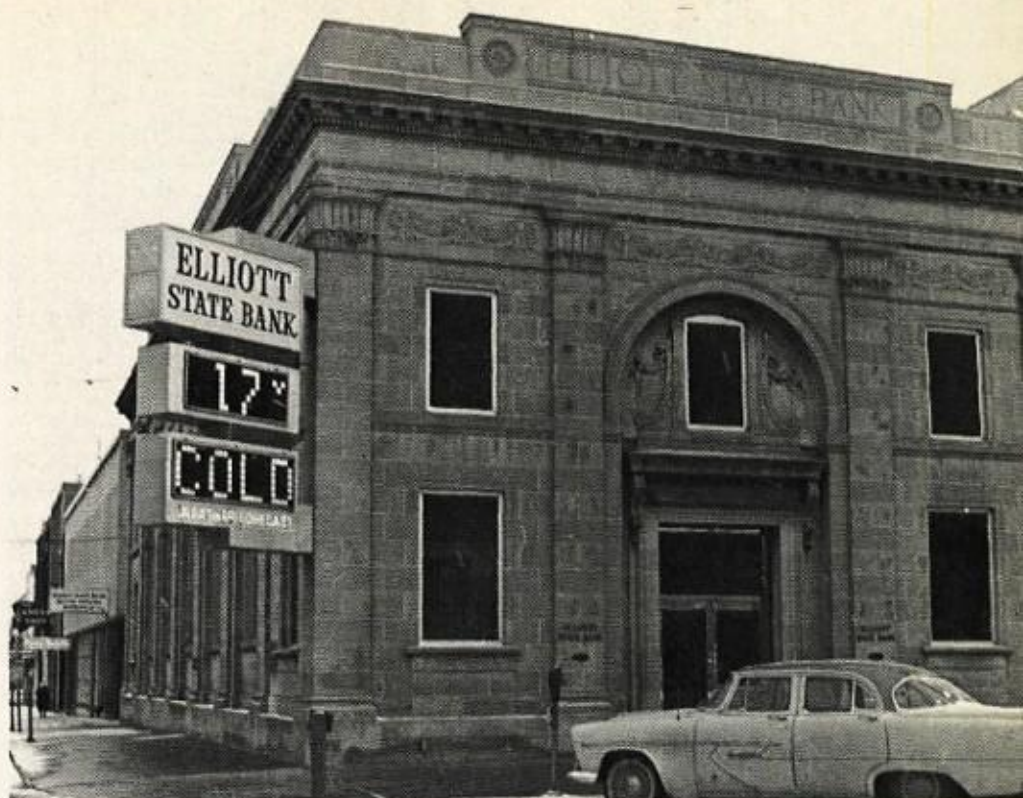

The academic needs of young people have always been the foremost concern of MacMurray. For the primary objective of MacMurray, by its academic tradition and Christian heritage, is to produce well-educated men and women. MacMurray has added two new buildings to its 60-acre campus this past year—the new Chemistry Laboratory, shown here, and the Campus Center—both of which promise to further the College's academic objective.

ELLIOTT STATE BANK

Serving the people of Morgan County since 1866

Elliott State Bank hopes to play a role in your future—in financing your college education, your first car, your first home of your own—in providing a safe, and profitable place for you to save—in helping you in all your financial decisions and plans. We invite you to make Elliott State Bank "your bank" and look forward to serving you soon.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Stan Patochi

Last spring the 1965 CRIMSON J was but a vague idea with undefined dimensions. But gradually, as plans were materialized, inspirations recorded, and the tedious tasks of pica-counting and proofreading completed, this finished product emerged in its present form.

To the many who contributed their time to help, I owe a million "thanks." But to all my staff, I would like to express a special "thank you" for their hard work and unfailing perseverance.

Alice Henderson, copy editor, who should have been born an octopus, for she had a hand in everything . . .

Jane Lukeman, art editor, who worked constantly at revising my illegible layouts . . .

Bob Karraker, Steve Ketner, and Bill Schneider, photographers, whose cryptic vernacular of f-stops, strobes, and ferrotyping had me wondering what they were up to . . .

Sherri Choate and Suzie Dowland, club editors, who nearly tore their hair out working with underclassmen pictures and copy and often emitted squeals of delight as an inspiration hit them . . .

Bill Young and John Bomke, business managers, who nonchalantly played business tycoons while bringing the "J" out of debt . . .

Dona Gross and Lana Dunseth, senior editors, who were up to their ears in quotations . . .

Bobette Kraushaar, whose conscientious attention to the sports section was occasionally interrupted by a quarrel with Bob over action shots . . .

Linda Votsmier and Mary Workman, typists, who patiently accepted our layouts the day before each deadline . . .

Miss Maurine Self, our advisor, who had an answer for every seemingly hopeless situation . . .

Mr. Murray, our commercial photographer and a nice guy to work with, who took time out from a busy schedule to furnish us excellent photographs . . .

Mr. Patterson, our principal, who good-naturedly listened to our odd requests and silently hoped that a book would be ready by the end of May . . .

The entire faculty, who suffered through the interrupted classes and picture schedules . . .

It's been a swell year. This "J" means a lot to us—we hope it will to you.

Dean,
Lots of luck
in your remaining years at J.H.S.
Don't forget all the times we have had together. Best Wishes!!
"Bob"
'62,

Dean,
So a real good later student and friend. Be good and take care.

Bev.

So a real nice guy remember all the fun we had with Brogdon.
Jim Fastudo '68"

Dean,
So a real nice
guy. Good luck
later in life.
Remember. Be good and take care.
Your old friend
"68"

Patricia Buddy,

we can have a great summer with you and your family in the house
